

Game Day, Bess Streeter Aldrich House, Elmwood

(Come Join the Fun!)

Friday, September 17, 1 to 4 p.m.

GOLF: A card game where players try to earn the lowest number of points (as in golf) over the course of nine deals (or “holes”) or eighteen deals (or “holes”) as in golf.

Farkle (Farkel): A fun and challenging dice game where players roll dice in succession with multiple scoring options.

Both games are easy for beginners to learn. Instructions will be provided so players can participate with friends and family members at a separate time in the future. Guests will be provided refreshments and the time to view the Vintage and Antique Toy Exhibit at the Aldrich House. Limit 16 participants. Cost $7.
